Keyin College Partners with Dublin Business School

Keyin College – Dublin Business School's first Canadian partner!

On May 13, 2016, Keyin College and Dublin Business School signed a Memorandum of Understanding providing students, who have completed Keyin's 2-year Business Management, Business Information Technology, or Business Management/Human Resource Management programs, an opportunity to enter and study the third year of the following three-year Honours Bachelor Degree programs in Dublin, Ireland:

- BA (Honours) in Business Information Systems
- BA (Honours) in Business* {General, Management or HRM Stream only}

Dublin Business School has a reputation as Ireland's leading independent college and is Ireland's largest independent third level college. With over 9,000 students, DBS provides a comprehensive range of full-time and part-time undergraduate, postgraduate, professional and executive education programs.

Established in 1975, the college quickly became known as having an excellent reputation for teaching quality and standards, offering flexible and innovative learning opportunities that reflect and match the needs of students and employers.

Over the last 45 years, DBS has established a considerable international reputation for the quality of its programs. This recognition has been achieved both at government level and on an individual student basis. The College has created a unique learning environment with students from over 70 countries participating in its programs.
